

2013 will be the year to settle down

HAPPY NEW YEAR! I thought I would share some information about the numerology of 2013!

Besides Feng Shui, my other love happens to be numerology. Each letter in the alphabet has a numeric value and each number has its own positive or negative qualities! The numerology of 2013 comes to 6. You add all the numbers together down to a single digit. For example; 20+13 = 33, 3+3 = 6. The universal vibration for the planet is going to be 6. In numerology 6 is the number of harmony, responsibility and adjustments. In a 6 year more people will pop the question, creating a run at the marriage license bureau! Or, people will be calling it quits, because the responsibility of a marriage proves to be too much. In a 6 year people are ready to settle down, especially after the breathless energy of 2012 which was a 5 year!

So, now that you know what type of vibration will be present in 2013, how can you use this to your advantage using my other love, Feng Shui?

It's important to keep your romantic relationships in tip top condition. Marriage or a long term relationship requires work, attention to detail and tender loving care! Since there will be harmonious energy present thanks to the 6 year vibration, you can do many things to enhance your romantic energy around the house.

1. Make sure you have two nightstands on either side of your bed.
2. Have a good solid headboard for your bed.
3. Store nothing under your bed, this robs your relationship of vital energy.
4. Stuff stored under your bed also robs you of precious energy.
5. Put pink sheets on your bed to add the sizzle factor!
6. Never have work related items in your bedroom.
7. No workout equipment in your bedroom either.
8. Take family photographs out of your bedroom.
9. Make your bedroom a sanctuary for rest, relaxation and romance!
10. Last but not least, make time for your loved one!

This would be an excellent column for our February issue, but I wanted to write it now so that you can be prepared for Valentine's Day!

In a 6 year, the energy is also present to walk away from the responsibility of a marriage or a long term relationship. If you are feeling worn at the edges, look over the above 10 suggestions and make changes in your bedroom. I have helped many couples regain the spark they thought they had lost by just rearranging their bedroom furniture and performing other pertinent cures. Feng Shui is a solution oriented philosophy, I love being able to help my clients lead more fulfilling lives.

Feng Shui can address romance issues and a host of other problems you may be facing. It is a good idea to get in touch with a Feng Shui consultant to improve your life!

I have resumed my teaching schedule at Francis Tuttle, I will be teaching Feng Shui as well as numerology, you can call them at 717-4900 to enroll. I also send out a monthly newsletter with my teaching schedule and Feng Shui tips, if you are interested in receiving my e-newsletter, just drop me a line at sunita@sunitasitara.com. I also have a Feng Shui page on Facebook if you'd like to follow that. I post new tips daily. Here is the address to that page, <http://www.facebook.com/SunitasFengShui>.

I wish continued success to all of my readers, Happy 2013!
